

Hello from Postlethwait! This email will serve as our communication for this week and next. I will send out text reminders as needed. As always, if something comes up, I will share that as well. Happy Thanksgiving to you and your family! We hope you get to enjoy some time off with your family and that you all have good health! You are a blessing to work with. I count you and your children on my list of what I am so very thankful for! 😊
