This At-Home Activity Packet includes two parts, Section 1 and Section 2, each with approximately 10 lessons in it. We recommend that your student complete one lesson each day.

Most lessons can be completed independently. However, there are some lessons that would benefit from the support of an adult. If there is not an adult available to help, don’t worry! Just skip those lessons.

Encourage your student to do the best they can with this content. The most important thing is that they continue to work on their reading!
Lesson 21
Homographs

Introduction Homographs are words that have the same spelling but different meanings. Sometimes homographs have different pronunciations from one another.

- The word wind is a homograph.

  A brisk wind blew, so I buttoned my coat.

  Then I began to wind my way down the hill to the village.

- You can use a dictionary to check the meaning and pronunciation of homographs. Each homograph is a separate entry in the dictionary.

  wind₁ (wind) n. 1. moving air
  2. breath, or breathing

  wind₂ (wind) v. 1. to go along a twisty path 2. to wrap something around another object

- To find the right meaning of a homograph, read the definitions for each entry. Then see which meaning makes sense in the sentence you are reading.

Guided Practice

Read the passage. Find each underlined homograph in a dictionary. With a partner, figure out how to pronounce it. Then write a short definition above each word.

The village was a perfect place to loaf for a few hours. I bought a fresh loaf of bread at a bakery near the beach. A dove was eating crumbs on the sidewalk. Across the street, a sea gull dove for food as I watched. Then I bought a present for my mom at a store. I planned to present it to her tonight at dinner. An old wound in my leg began to ache. So, I wound my way slowly along the streets.

Lesson 8
Finding the Theme of a Poem

Learning Target
Studying how a poet reflects upon a topic and the details she includes will help you identify the theme of a poem.

Read Poems can express feelings and ideas on many topics. The speaker in a poem reflects on a topic by saying what he or she thinks and feels about it. You can use these reflections and other details in a poem to figure out that poem’s message, or theme.

Identify the theme of this comic strip by studying what the characters say and do. Also think about how the comic strip ends.
Think  What have you learned so far about using details to identify a theme? Complete the chart below, filling it out with details from the comic strip.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>What Do the Characters Say?</th>
<th>What Do the Characters Do?</th>
<th>How Does the Comic Strip End?</th>
<th>What Is the Theme?</th>
</tr>

Darkness in the Desert
by Morena Sommers

For desert animals, the day
Is not a time for work or play.
There's little shade; the world is dry.
The clouds are absent from the sky.
5 Things sizzle in the searing heat,
The burning sands hurt creatures' feet—
And so when it turns light they creep
Beneath the ground to fall asleep.

But late in the day the sky grows dim.
10 The sun drops past the canyon rim.
The stars peek through, and very soon
The night replaces afternoon.
Inside their dens the creatures stir—
They like the cooler temperature.
15 By ones and twos, by fives and tens
The animals creep from their dens.

On mountain, prairie, plain, and hill,
The night is when the world is still.
In deserts, though, the times reverse:
20 The dark is good, the light is worse.
The daytime is the time to rest.
For desert creatures, night is best.

The desert fox, the mouse, the hare,
At night they scamper here and there.
25 Their claws scratch softly in the sand.
Their faint calls echo through the land.
From dusk to dawn, all through the night
They feed and play till morning light.

NIGHT WALK

by Amy Saito

1 The sky above, the streets below,
The stars reflecting off the snow—
A lovely night for us to go
Out for a walk, the puppy thinks.

5 The moon's a brilliant shade of gold,
And though she's just a few months old,
The puppy knows the night is cold—
She leans into the wind and blinks.

What's that thing moving in the tree?
10 The puppy dashes up to see.
It's vanished! What a mystery!
She sits beneath the tree to bark.

Her master guides her through the night
First turning left, then turning right
15 The dark is deep, there is no light
She yanks her leash: is this the park?

The night's a lovely time to roam
But now it's time for heading home.
She's only little, after all,

Can't run all night when she's so small.

Someday she'll grow a little more
And when she's three, or maybe four
She'll run all night, and she'll be tough—
Tonight, though, she's gone far enough.

25 Her master strokes her furry head,
And yawning, she goes off to bed.
But as she sleeps, the moonlight beams
Will dart and dance inside her dreams.
