

WELCH WEEKLY REMINDER

October 13, 2021

SEL Tip from Ms. Boris: One of the key areas of SEL (social emotional learning) is self-management. Self-management, like managing emotions, controlling impulses, and setting goals. The success skill of self-management fosters the ability of students to follow through on study plans, complete tasks and assignments, and keep schedules. Here are three ways to integrate self-management skills into projects while students are at home.

- Create a daily schedule
- Use a weekly schedule
- Stick to deadlines
