ABOUT RELAY
Accredited by both the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE) and the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP), Relay is an independent, non-profit graduate school with unique master’s degree and certification programs designed specifically to respond to today’s urgent demand for effective teachers in our nation’s communities.

Relay’s programs are focused on training teachers with proven, concrete techniques that they can implement in their classrooms immediately. Relay trains teachers in a practical, innovative, and accountable way.

PROGRAM COST
Relay is committed to ensuring that our programs are affordable for teachers. A majority of students will be eligible for scholarships and aid that will enable them to pay less than $24,000 over two years. Payment plans are available for all students, and Relay offers federal student loans for eligible graduate students.

PROGRAM LOCATION
Classes are mostly virtual; clinical coursework occurs via observation in your school and classes across the state.

CERTIFICATION AREAS
Elementary, middle and secondary Math, English Language Arts, Social Studies, and Science.

Dual certification in Special Education K-12 is available.
