District Equity Statement

The Caesar Rodney School District values all students, educators, and community members. We understand that each student brings a unique set of experiences that make them extraordinary people. Therefore, the District is committed to ensuring every voice has a safe learning environment to be heard, learn and develop as their authentic selves, including those historically marginalized due to race, ethnicity, gender identity, and religious affiliation.

We believe education is a partnership that begins in the home and we are committed to serving our students in the community and in our schools, by modeling and exemplifying what it is to be a part of the "Rider Family."

Sincerely,

Kevin R. Fitzgerald, Ed. D.
Superintendent
