Communications

Superintendent

1. Dr. Fitzgerald congratulated all the students recognized this evening and congratulated Dale Mann and Carl Simpson on their Spirit of Caesar Rodney Staff Member Awards.
2. Dr. Fitzgerald congratulated the cast and crew of the play "Oklahoma".
3. Dr. Fitzgerald congratulated our ten teams (three from the high school) that qualified for the State Championship in Odyssey of the Mind. He gave special shout out to Jonathan Bush (from Simpson) who received the highest award called the "OMER" for his enthusiasm and creativity.
4. Dr. Fitzgerald congratulated our ProStart Culinary Team for finishing third in the state wide competition.
5. Dr. Fitzgerald mentioned that today is "Rock Your Socks Day" which is the National Downs Syndrome Awareness Day.
6. Dr. Fitzgerald thanked Mr. Joe Hartman, CREA Representative, and DSEA for inviting him to participate in a round table discussion with Senator Bushweiler. They had a good conversation about equalization and funding.
7. Dr. Fitzgerald reminded the Board that the governor’s budget will come out on March 23rd, which is this Thursday. We hope for the best, but we understand that all indicators point to a sizable cut to education. Should those cuts involve any layoffs, we will work closely with CREA.
8. Next Tuesday, March 28th, the equalization committee will meet to discuss the formula and make a recommendation to the legislature.
9. Next Wednesday, March 29th, will be our rescheduled Caesar Rodney High School College Fair from 6-8 p.m. Dr. Fitzgerald encouraged middle school students to also visit and talk with the over 100 colleges and universities who will be present.
10. April 3rd will be the Spring Snapshot. This will determine staffing for the future.
11. Dr. Fitzgerald commended the high school on a successful CTE (Career/Technical Education) audit.
12. Dr. Fitzgerald reminded the Board that April 25th will be the Secretary of Education Scholars Dinner which will be held at Dover Downs beginning at 6 p.m.
13. Dr. Fitzgerald informed the Board that there are three candidates that have filed for Mrs. Precourt’s seat. They are Alan Claycomb, Tawanna Prophet and Dave Failing. The election will be held on May 9th with W. Reily Brown, W. B. Simpson and Allen Frear Elementary Schools serving as polling places.
14. This week begins spring sport competitions. Dr. Fitzgerald wished all of our student athletes the best this upcoming season.
